77TH ARMOR ASSOCIATION UPDATE

Dear Steel Tigers, Family Members, and Friends,

I am honored to have been elected as President of the Steel Tigers 77th Armor Association at the 2007 Reunion in November. Having served this association as Quartermaster, Secretary, Treasurer, Vice President and Web Master, I know that we need excellent support staff. I am pleased to announce that we have elected a slate of competent and committed Officers who will serve through 2009. I am particularly pleased that Gerry Dubois is Vice President of the Association. He has always been an inspiration for me and I know he will serve us well. Jerry Brown, a Past President, is our new Chaplain. Don Cummings has assumed the office of Secretary which is a demanding job. Bob Basner and Kevin Dunne were re-elected as Treasurer and Quartermaster, respectively. Both deserve our praise for jobs well done.

Mike Leone was re-elected Sergeant at Arms, but sadly, Mike passed away shortly after the 2007 Reunion. I am deeply moved by the fact that Mike and Linda decided to spend his last days in our company at Scottsdale.

For those of you who often wait until the reunion, please consider paying your membership dues early this year. Membership dues for the Steel Tigers Association are due in January of each calendar year.

I am committed to lead this Association in a new direction for the next two years. Our membership is not limited to veterans of Vietnam. Our number includes a significant number of active duty personnel and we are pledged by our Constitution to support them. Reunion 2007 was the first since 2003, without active duty members present - they were in Iraq! We need to increase our efforts to incorporate our younger active duty comrades and lay the foundation to welcome future Steel Tigers.

Towards that end, Honorary Sergeant Major of the Regiment, Joe D. Offutt, and I attended the ReFlagging Ceremony for the units of the 4th Brigade 1st Cavalry Division which is now the 4th Brigade Combat Team of the 1st Armored Division, Old Ironsides, with headquarters at Fort Bliss. We met the new 1/77 Armor Commander, LTC James Nikolas and CSM Anthony Murguia who will be reassigned in June. Nevertheless, they are very enthusiastic about our Association. So enthusiastic, in fact, that Joe D and I gave them the hats off our heads during a reception following the ceremony. We would have given them the shirts off our backs had it not been such a cool day in El Paso! We also spent time with CPT Jim Walker and 1SG Dean Fowler of A Company. The good news is we will have the 1/77th Armor in Joe D.'s back yard and he is already launching a recruiting drive. The old 2/12 Cavalry is now the 1/77th Armor, but the configuration will remain as it was as a Cavalry Battalion. Two Tank Companies and two Mechanized Infantry Companies. Now for the bad news, A and B are now Infantry Companies, so some of us will need to adjust.

Also, our Historian needs help from the veterans of Kosovo and Iraq. We are seeking volunteers from these deployments to give us the broader perspective we need to help us educate a new pool of potential members about the Association. Finally, our Membership Vice President, Tom Miller, is in contact with COL Dave Hubner and LTC Miciotto Johnson who commanded the 1/77 in Iraq. We plan to join COL Hubner and his soldiers in Las Vegas for a tenth anniversary reunion of the 2004 deployment to Iraq.

I look forward to working together with you to assure the future of our Steel Tigers.

Respectfully,
Charles H. Winslow
President

FALLEN HERO MICHAEL V. LEONE 77TH ARMOR ASSOCIATION SERGEANT AT ARMS

Mike at his April 22, 2007 wedding to Linda

Michael V. Leone, 61, died on January 3, 2008 in Kansas City. Mike served with the Steel Tigers in Vietnam. He was a loader in HHQ Company.

When his active duty service ended, he joined the National Guard. Following his military service, Mike was the Chief of Police in Canton, MO and Gower, MO, and a police officer at Lake Waukomis, Weatherby Lake, Biscayne Bay, Florida, and Tomball, Texas. Mike was employed by American Protective Services for 22 years and then by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms (ATF) until his retirement. He also worked at the Kansas City, MO Public Library where he met his wife, Linda.

Mike was buried at Leavenworth National Cemetery. A highly respected man in the law enforcement community, the funeral was attended by six different city police departments, two local sheriffs, and several prosecuting attorneys, as well as a large number of employees from the library where both he and his wife, Linda, worked part-time. Mike was given full honors from both the VFW and the police departments.

According to Linda, Mike “enjoyed your friendship and the reunions so much . . . He was very grateful that he was searched out and told about the reunions. It meant a lot to him to be able to attend. We were told before we left for the last reunion in Scottsdale that his days were numbered. He probably shouldn't have been there, but he couldn't be talked out of it. He had to see you all one last time. He was very fond of each and every one of you. He considered serving with you in the Army to be one of his greatest privileges.”

In lieu of flowers, his family asked that memorial contributions be made to the Disabled American Veterans (www.dav.org).

*They shall not grow old as we who are left grow old.
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We will remember them.*

REQUEST YOUR DD-214 ONLINE

The National Personnel Records Center (NPRC) is working to make it easier for veterans with computers and Internet access to obtain copies of documents from their military files. Military veterans and the next of kin of deceased former military members may now use a new online military personnel records system to request documents.

The NPRC has provided the following website to assist veterans wishing to request their DD-214s online at: <http://vetrecs.archives.gov/>

Because the requester will be asked to supply all information essential for the NPRC to process the request, delays that normally occur when NPRC has to ask veterans for additional information will be minimized. The new web-based application was designed to provide better service on these requests by eliminating the records centers mailroom and processing time. This may be particularly helpful when a veteran needs a copy of his DD-214 for employment purposes.

Other individuals with a need for documents must still complete the Standard Form 180, which can be downloaded from the web site.

MEMORIALS TOUR

Friday, August 29

Begin today's tour at Arlington National Cemetery, where we will board Park Service Trams and proceed to the Tomb of the Unknowns for the changing of the guard and laying of a memorial wreath. Kennedy and his brother Robert, lit by the eternal flame. After leaving Arlington enjoy lunch on your own and free time at the Ronald Reagan Building food court. After lunch we'll head for the WWII Memorial, the first national memorial dedicated to all who served during World War II. The Memorial, which was established by the American Battle Monuments Commission, honors all military veterans of the war, the citizens on the home front, the nation at large, and high moral purpose and idealism that motivated the nation's call to arms. We'll have a brief service and wreath laying here before heading to the Vietnam Wall. This imposing granite structure lists the names of all service members who lost their lives in that conflict. Here the group will place another wreath in memory of fallen comrades.

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

In June of 1863, just weeks before the Battle of Gettysburg, a college president asked Lincoln if he thought the country would survive. President Lincoln replied: "I do not doubt that our country will finally come through safe and undivided. But do not misunderstand me....I do not rely on the patriotism of our people...the bravery and devotion of the boys in blue...(or) the loyalty and skill of our generals....But the God of our fathers, who raised up this country to be the refuge and asylum of the oppressed and downtrodden of all nations, will not let it perish now. I may not live to see it...I do not expect to see it, but God will bring us through safe."

As I read the words of President Abraham Lincoln, a divided nation in a desperate struggle for the soul and survival of the nation, I am reminded of the tremendous sacrifice of the men who fought the battles of that war. President Lincoln said that we Americans have been called to be the "refuge and asylum of the oppressed and downtrodden of all nations."

Today, we Americans are still blessed to produce young men and women who will "Insiste Firmiter" for the best ideals of this nation...to help people become free of tyranny of ideologies that enslave people such as Fascisms, Communism, and other radical ideologies.

As veterans of the Vietnam War, we can take comfort and pride in the fact that we performed our duty to our nation and our God, but our fighting days are not over. Our soldiers need our support in the work place, in our communities, in the voting booth. Let's not allow the press, news media, left wing-anti military groups slander the men and women in our Armed Forces.

The men of the 77th Armor still have a lot of fight in them. Our forefathers and men such as you earned free speech and voting that our countrymen as well as others all over the world enjoy. The Germans, Italians, Greeks, Japanese, South Koreans, Czech Republic, Ukraine, Poland, Hungary and dozens of other countries enjoy democratic forms of government because of the American fighting man. Look for ways to support our troops who are fighting the war now. God allowed us to come home... some will say it was just a coincidence, but some of us know it was a gift from God.

Just as the Union Army was fighting against slavery and injustice, the American Army of Vietnam and the American Army in Iraq and Afghanistan are fighting against slavery and injustice.

Pray for our troops and their families. When you see them in the streets or in the airports, make a point to shake their hands and let them know we appreciate what they are doing. Tell the children that our soldiers are our pride and joy. Find a soldier and send him a "Care Package" full of good things to eat. As you remember as young men, you never have enough to eat and things from home always taste so much better. Find a political candidate who matches your values and support them with more than just money. There are a thousand things you can do to show your support for the troops; boldly step out and get involved. There is still a lot of life and fight in you.

Hebrews 13: 5-6 "For He [God] Himself has said, I will not in any way fail you nor give you up nor leave you without support. [I will] not, [I will] not, [I will] not in any degree leave you helpless nor forsake nor let [you] down (relax My hold on you)! [ Assuredly not!].<sup>6</sup> So we take comfort and are encouraged and confidently and boldly say, The Lord is my Helper; I will not be seized with alarm [I will not fear or dread or be terrified]. What can man do to me?

God Bless Our Soldiers and Their Families.

Jerry A. Brown
Chaplain

ACTIVE DUTY UPDATE

The Steel Tigers returned in November 2007 from their 15-month deployment to Ramadi, Iraq in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom 06-08. Since that time, the Battalion saw two changes of command, four changes of responsibility and a fully integrated Company D (Rear-Detachment) to give the Steel Tigers a new look, a new leadership, and new group of warriors with the same hunger for excellence. In addition, the Steel Tigers paid tribute to their fallen comrades. PVT Edwin A. Andino II, SGT Jason L. Merrill, SPC Eric G. Palacios Rivera, SPC Jordan William Hess, PFC Paul Balint Jr., SGT Corey J. Aultz, SGT Milton A Gist Jr., PFC Louis G. Kim, SFC Raymond R. Buchan, SSG Michael L Ruoff Jr., SGT Edward L. Brooks, and SGT Kevin A. Gilbertson will forever be remembered by a simple, but humbling bronze collection of a kevlar, set of ID tags, rifle, and a pair of boots.

Memorial Dedication to our fallen Soldiers from OIF 2 & OIF 06-08

CPT Thomas McMurtrie and SFC Jason Bostic, Commander and 1SG of Company D, did an outstanding job as they bridged the gap between the soldiers on the front lines with their loved ones back home. LTC Louis B. Rago, II, from Chicago, Illinois took over the Battalion Colors from LTC Miciotto Johnson. He joined the Steel Tiger Family with his wife Sharon and three daughters; Marissa, Angelica, and Gabriella. CPT Daniel Lawrence from Wilmington, Delaware changed command with CPT Ian Lauer as Commander Company C.

All of the Companies conducted a Change of Responsibility. 1SG Robert Trujillo from Taos, New Mexico changed responsibility with 1SG Danny Rebolledo as the Headquarters and Headquarter Company First Sergeant. He joined the Steel Tiger Family with his wife Cyndi and daughters; Allison and Avery. 1SG Peter Baczek from Chicago, Illinois changed responsibility with 1SG Michael Moser as the Company A First Sergeant. He joined the team with his wife Karen and children; Tobias, Diana, Samantha-Jo and Kristen. SFC Carlos Aceves of El Paso, Texas changed responsibility with 1SG Jason Pingo as the Company B First Sergeant, and SFC Kevin Jackson changed responsibility with 1SG David Pitts as the Company C First Sergeant. SFC Aceves and SFC Jackson are familiar faces. SFC Aceves served as Platoon Sergeant of 2nd Platoon, Company C, Task Force 1-77 Armor in Ramadi, Iraq. SFC Jackson served as Platoon Sergeant of 3rd Platoon, Company B attached to Task Force 1-26 Infantry in Taji, Iraq.

Wreath laying by LTC Johnson & CSM Edwards

They encounter a new challenge as the Battalion prepares to move to Grafenwoehr as a part of the 2nd Brigade Combat Team, 1 ID. The Steel Tigers are done with block leave and Soldier/Family reintegration as they shift focus to prepare for the many adventures ahead.

SUPPORT NEEDED FOR US ARMY COIN LEGISLATION

US Senators Daniel K. Inouye (D-HI) and James M. Inhofe (R-OK) recently introduced legislation in the Senate that would authorize the minting and sale of commemorative coins to honor the "United States Army and its traditions, history and heritage." These would be the first US coins ever issued to celebrate and honor the US Army as a whole.

The proposed legislation, which must be passed by both houses of Congress before becoming law, would create a series of three coins: $5 gold coin with a limited mintage of 100,000, a silver dollar with a limit of 500,000, and a 50 cent copper-nickel clad coin limited to 750,000

"The sacrifice of American soldiers of all ranks since the earliest days of the Republic has been immense and is deserving of the unique recognition bestowed by commemorative coinage," said Inouye, a WWII Veteran, during his introduction of the bill.

These commemorative coins will do more than just honor the Army and Army veterans. The proposed legislation would reserve a share of sales revenues to help fund the National Museum of the United States Army to be built at Fort Belvoir, Virginia. Scheduled to open in 2013, the Army Museum will tell the story of the US Army as an institution and be a tribute to the American soldier. Coin sales could generate up to $12 million towards museum construction.

"The US Army Commemorative Coin is an appropriate way to honor the Army's rich heritage, and to help make the National Museum of the United States Army a reality," said AHF Government Affairs Director Brad Sellers, the Army's primary partner in building the museum.

"We plan to keep National Army Museum supporters abreast of the coin legislation's status in future issues of Call To Duty. Meanwhile, we'd appreciate it if readers would contact their US Senators and Congressmen to urge their support of the pending legislation," Sellers added.

Visit <http://www.armyhistory.org/armyhistorical.aspx?pgID=1063> to see a sample letter for your representatives in Washington. You can say this in a telephone call or put it in the form of a letter. Either method is effective.
